Passing through kingdoms

Receiving the power to become God is a result of choosing the plan of exaltation

Ordinances done in Families

Ordinances of the first born

Noah: Shem, Ham, Japheth each held priesthood and were righteous: (Moses 8:27)

Ham's Children (not Ham) lost right to priesthood Because of Mother (Abr. 1:23-27)

Patriarchal and priesthood line is always determined by the mother.

Ham has two grandchildren that settle the two 'cradles of Civilization'

Nimrod- Mesopotamia (Babylon)

Pharaoh- Egypt

The two kingdoms that symbolize wickedness because they used the Endowment without authority to declare themselves the son of god on earth in order to control the people.

Egypt established long before Moses and the lesser law. Pharaoh and Nimrod familiar with the Ordinances of the first born (Son of God) Nimrod exercises unrighteous dominion, Pharaoh is righteous and 'seeks earnestly' to imitate.
